Supervisor Correa- Presentation of Resolution Declaring the Month of October as "Orange County Innovation Month"

O.C. Innovation Month

October 2006

On the motion of Supervisor Lou Correa, the following Resolution was adopted by the Orange County Board of Supervisors:

WHEREAS, Orange County Innovation 2006 is the second annual celebration of the significant growth of technology, science, entertainment, arts and industry in Orange County and promotes their continued advancement; and

WHEREAS, Orange County is home to one of the largest and most diverse innovation centers in the country where it promotes innovation as an essential item for future competitiveness of our national economy; and

WHEREAS, Orange County is a global leader in innovation and celebrates the growth of technology, sciences, entertainment, the arts, industry and culture; and

WHEREAS, A wide range of Orange County organizations representing private capital, business, business organizations, education, and non-profits have formed an organization called Orange County Innovation; and

WHEREAS, These organizations include Angel Strategies, Tech Coast Angels, Toshiba America, Los Xitos, University of Irvine, The Irvine Company, OCTANe, Orange County Business Council, Saddleback College Advanced Technology Center, The Tech Coast Venture Network, Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, Stradling, Yocca, Carlson & Rauth, Orange County Venture Group, Wunderman, Rancho Santiago Community College District, California State University Fullerton, the City of Anaheim, Association for Corporate Growth, the Forum for Corporate Directors, MyWebTeam, and many others; and

WHEREAS, The result of Orange County innovation is evident in the enterprising ecosystem of start-ups and market leaders that are defining economic opportunities, and the celebration also recognizes contributions made by local universities and colleges to inspire intellectual innovation; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT WE, the Orange County Board of Supervisors do declare the month of October 2006 to be Orange County Innovation Month.
