RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA
<October 21, 2008 >

On the motion of Supervisor Janet Nguyen the following resolution was adopted by the Orange County Board of Supervisors:

WHEREAS, Westminster was the second colony in Orange County to be deliberately founded, and was founded as a temperance colony by the Presbyterian Reverend, Lemuel P. Webber in 1870, and was named for the Westminster Assembly of 1643, which prescribed the basic tenets of the Presbyterian Church; and

WHEREAS, the 1900's saw Westminster gain the reputation as the finest dairying center in the country, as well as the first library in the newly built Odd Fellows Hall, the first telephone, and the formation of the Westminster Chamber of Commerce in order to promote the town's business; and

WHEREAS, in 1996, Westminster was named "All-America City" by the National Civic League for civic accomplishments, made possible by the cooperative efforts of business, government, the volunteer sector and other individuals, and was recognized for programs such as Project SHUE, an intergenerational after-school program at the Senior Center for six-to-nine year old Vietnamese and Hispanic "at risk" children, the anti-gang program TARGET, and the Community Collaborative; and

WHEREAS, the turn of the century found continued growth and improvement in Westminster with the development of the Civic Center area, home to the Sid Goldstein Memorial Freedom Park, the Vietnam War Memorial, the Coastline Community College satellite campus, the Westminster Rose Center, a theater and convention center for community events, the Civic Center City Buildings, the Senior Center, the Orange County Courthouse and the Orange County Library; and

WHEREAS, this year, on October 25, 2008 the City of Westminster will again open their streets to all past and present residents of Westminster, and all others who would like to participate in celebration of Founder's Day by holding a parade its honor.
